

Nine ways...
NARO HELPS
ROYALTY OWNERS

1. Publishes the "Royalty Owners Action Report"--the only national monthly newsletter providing royalty owners with updates on lease trends, state and federal legislation, tax and regulatory developments, and practical management tips.
2. Provides each NARO member with the premier manual on oil and gas leasing for mineral owners: "Look Before You Lease."
3. Is the world's best resource center for books and bulletins on all aspects of oil and gas leasing and minerals management.
4. Maintains a Internet site for royalty owners that include a highly popular message board, research and management aids, and legislative updates.
5. Provides yearly Washington, D.C., legislative and regulatory briefings and personal Congressional contacts through the NARO Legislative Council.
6. Serves as a royalty owner "watchdog" to warn members about fraudulent schemes in the oil patch.
7. Hosts annual national conventions filled with first class leasing and management seminars and updates on legislative and regulatory issues.
8. Conducts a Certified Minerals Manager program to provide management credentials to both professionals and laymen.
9. Recognized as the prime authority on royalty owner issues by Congress, state legislatures and news media.
